

Program 4: 3D/2N Brunei At A Glance

Code: BAG4

Price: US$ 50.00 / pax

Max: 30 pax

Day 1 (Friday 29/01/10)

Merimbun Lake and Oil & Gas production areas

- Depart from hotels towards Brunei's largest fresh water lake, the ASEAN Heritage Site of Tasek Merimbun, offering unparalleled peace and tranquility amidst pristine nature only one hour away from downtown.
- Visit the Heritage Site museum and proceed for a short nature walk by the sides of the lake.
- Continue through Brunei's green countryside towards the oil producing area of Kuala Belait – Seria.
- Lunch will be served in Kuala Belait, Brunei's second largest town by the Belait river.
- After lunch proceed through the Panaga area and have a glimpse of Brunei's oil producing facilities and of the well manicured oil companies' staff compounds. Stop by the Billionth Barrel monument before visiting Seria's Oil & Gas Discovery Center, then returning to Bandar via Tutong and the Jerudong area.
- Overnight at the Orchid Garden Hotel.

Day 2 (Saturday 30/01/10)

Treasures of Bandar

- Depart after breakfast for a boat trip along the Damuan river to look for the elusive Borneo endemic proboscis monkey, easily found near the capital's populated areas.
- Return to the city center for a visit to the local Tamu, or market, by the Kianggeh river, followed by a visit to the Bandar Chinese Temple, the town's main parade ground and the iconic Sultan Omar Ali Saifuddin Mosque.
- Lunch of local specialties overlooking the Water Village at the restaurant of the Arts & Handicrafts Center, preceded by a visit of the Center.
- After lunch, proceed towards the historic Kota Batu area for a visit of the Royal Mausoleum of Sultan Shariff Ali, the third Sultan of Brunei in the 16th century and a descendent of Prophet Mohammed, followed by a visit of the galleries of the Brunei Museum, retracing the history of Brunei, its Islamic heritage and its natural environment.
- Overnight at the Orchid Garden Hotel.
